Ritchie Fights Welsh To a Ten-Round Draw

Referee Roche Lifts Both of IS FOUGHT TO DRAW Battlers' Hands at End of Slow Bout.

OPINIONS ARE DIFFERENT

By W. S. FARNSWORTH.

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., March 11.-Willie Ritchie shaded Freddie Welsh, the light-weight champion, at the Garden last night in one of the tamest ten-round fights ever seen in New York. It was a terrible exhibition for two champions, and at the end it was almost impossible to pick a win-ner, so slight was Ritchie's margin. It was really "no contest." Ritchie It was really no control of it came did all the forcing, and if it came right down to a fine point he deserved a shade. Welsh blocked most of his offerings but landed the cleanest blows of the bout, few as they were.

Ritchie showed that he lacked work And had he had a few fights under his belt since he lost his title last July in London he would have given Welsh an artistic trimming.

Welsh gave one of the poorest ex-ninth. He boxed eleverly and for the first time during the 5th he used his straight right books with receision. On way of counting deserved the fourth, the lost the following fifth, sixth, night, and tenth. Be this same Englishmen way of picking a winner Ritchie had the second, third. seventh, and cithib.

The first was even, but from start to finish Ritchie and all the forcing.

If they had been preliminary highters both would have been thrown out of Referee Roche gave his decision as a draw, lifting both fighters' hands at the end of the bout.

Here's One on Booth Hopper

Nanhville, Tenn., March 11.—Booth Hopper, the young pitcher from St. Paul, of the American Association, who is in training with the Washington team of the American League at Charlottesville, Va., has been caused no end of worries by one of Joe Cautillion's practical jokes. Cantillion claims to have traded young Hopper for a bird fog, and a few days before reporting for spring practice, in his home town, Jackson, Tenn., the plicher was errested on a complaint of a neighbor who charged that Hopper had assaulted blm. "Why did you attack the man!" asked the justice of the peace. "He insulted me," replied Hopper. "What did he say to you!" persisted the guardian of the law. "Say!" shouted Hopper, almost beside himself with indignation. "He said bow wow."

"TY" TYSON "ITH BUFFALO.

Andrew "Ty" Tyson, a former star pitcher at Georgetown, yesterday signed a contract to slab for the Buffalo club of the International League, managed by Patsy Donovan.

While at Georgetown Tyson was considered one of the best pitchers in the college ranks and proved himself a verastile ball player. When hot working is the box "Ty" many times filled one of the infield positions and performed like a veteran. He was a good hitter, and was considered by many here as being ready for professional baseball. Tyson's great record with a Niagara semi-pro team was sufficient for a contract from Donovan.
